A highly skilled plastic surgeon, Dr. Michele Shermak focuses on helping her patients achieve their best version of themselves. She is expert at body contouring and mommy makeovers, facial rejuvenation, and cosmetic and reconstructive breast procedures. She has been recognized nationally as a thought leader in her field, and has written a surgical textbook on breast and body contouring. Her academic work focuses on patient safety and individualizing patient care.

Dr. Shermak graduated phi beta kappa and magna cum laude from Franklin and Marshall College, and earned her medical degree from The Johns Hopkins School of Medicine. She trained in plastic surgery at Johns Hopkins and joined the Hopkins faculty after a fellowship in Nashville, transitioning into private practice five years ago. She is board-certified in plastic surgery.

Dr. Shermak's practice is intentionally client-centric, recognizing that each patient is unique. She is focused on offering a wide range of options to ensure that patients have maximum flexibility and support. Dr. Shermak's services range from minimally invasive treatments and injectables to complex cosmetic and reconstructive surgical options. Depending on a patient's goals, time and financial resources, she says, "I can offer a treatment that can help you achieve the results you want."

Her motto is: "This is your life. Make it beautiful!"
